PRESIDENTIAL LEVER EXTRAORDINARY-A highly exciting seems occurred at the White House vesterday morning. About thundred citizens of California, helnding oany leading Republicans, called on the President, to protest ngalust the interference of Senator Baker, of Oregon, with the appointments in first State, and his attempt, as they claim, to foist corrupt and according to the control of the control oroken down politicions, of doubtlid ante-calents, upon the Administration, and the beople of the Golden State. AN CNEXPECTED CONTRETEMPS. The President had arranged, whether from love of lun or a sense of justice, has not yet appeared, that Senator Baker should be present, without the knowledge of the protestants. They were surprised to be placed face to face with him, but but him, but their spekesman, Mr. othing dainted, their spokesman, Mr. oseph A. Nunes, read a soleum protest, ud accompanied it with an emphatic, but espectful extempore speech.

SENATOR BAKER SEVERELY DENOUNCED. After him Mr. Simonton, of the San Francisco Bulletin, stepped forward and read a statement, in which he denonneed Cal. Baker and the politicians he intended to saddle upon California as Federal office holders, in unmeasured terms.

The President listened to it quietly, but after its delivery, walked up towards dessrs. Nunes and Simonton, took hold Messrs. Naues and Simonton, took hold of their respective doenments, and remarked in substance: "The protest deserves to be considered, but as to your speech," turning to Simonton, "it is disrespectful to myself and Mr. Baker, and I can make no other disposition of it than this," thrusting it, with the last word, luto the fire.

CALIFORNIA IS ASTONISHED AND OVERPOW

An intense consternation prevailed for some time after this most unlooked for proceeding. Simonton looked as though achad been struck with a thunderbolt, but finally recovered so far as to say, "I have simply done my duty; I have nothing to expect from the Executive, and in doing what fails I morely meant to protect the at I did, I merely meant to protect the onart and, I merely mean to protect the interests of my State."

After considerable parleying and explaining, the material irritation subsided, and a compromise was effected, according to which the President is to confer with a committee made up of members of both settings at a the amountments. actions as to the appointments.

[From the New York Post.] william R, Russell, of the army contract rm of Russell, Majors & Waddell, pub-shes a long defense of his conduct in the auter of the stolen ludian Trust Bonds. its statement, illling a pamphlet of six-cen pages, is not only an elaborate at-empt at self-justification, but an indig-ment remonstrance actins; the action of out remonstrance against the action of the Special Investigating Committee appointed by Congress. Mr. Russell, regarding himself as the victim of circumstances, enounces the report of the controller with misstatements and labse deductions," and a containing within itself "its own man!.

After indulging in these observations, asself proceed to show the eature of his outract with the toverament, and appeals a officers of the army to testify to the delity with which he has conducted the cork of transportation for the troops; livells upon the losses sustained by his lim in the affair of the Utah supplies; takes that his accordances were largely necessarily as thrm in the aftair of the Utah snpplies; states that his acceptances were largely negotiated and were falling due while he had no means to meet the demand—and so comes down to the time of the thelt of the bonds. This part of the story is so curious that we copy it entire. It will be seen that he claims to lave been ignorant of the real character of the bonds in his first negotiations with the clerk, Bailey, but that, having once tasted the sweets of plunder. vith a full knowledge of the risk.

HE EFFECTS THE LOAN.

It is sufficient to say that he informed me that he had some State stocks at his command, which I might use for purposes of hypothecation, if I could return them in minety lays. I told him that I had no doubt of my ability to return them in that time. The loan was accordingly effected, and I proceeded, on the evening of the same day, to New York, with the State stocks, and used them in the manner and for purposes already Indicated. When I obtained them and pledged them for more, with which to protect the maturing oblained them and pledged them for mo-ney, with which to protect the maturing acceptances of the War Department, I was whedly ignorant of their true character. This statement I made to the select com-mittee under the solemnities of a judicial outh. I was not aware, at that three, nor for two or three months thereafter, that there was an Indian Trust Bond in exis-tence. It was only when stocks declined tence. It was only when stocks declined, and the parties with whom I had made the hypothecation notified me that they must sell them or have an additional deposit to make good the margin, that I learned their true character. I returned to Washington and sent for Mr. Bailey, with the view of informing him that I would not be able to return the Stare stocks which I had borreard tran him in the time stipal, and in owed from him in the time stipulated in HE LEARNS THAT THE BONDS WERE SIGLEY.

The total indebtedness of the United tes Government Is $74,985,200, Including various issues of Treasurry Notes, and ron my unfortunate to extreate myself from my unfortunate dilemma. I had no nears at my command with which to re-leen the hypothecated bonds, and as they were likely to be sold, I feared that I might not be able ever forecover them. The Gov-rrangent discover of the lower and friether ernment owed our frm, as will be seen from this paper, for losses and freights in 1857, exclusive of interest, $955,550.—
From motives of policy, only a portion of this claim has been presented for adjustment to the Department and Congress. I knew the great difficulty of seening payment for so large att amount, and so presented as to procure an indorsement of the principle involved, and in the hope, afterward, of obtaining the entire amount. The Department was in possession of all the ward, of obtaining the entire amount. The Department was in possession of all the facts, and, as far as I am able to jindge, had taken no exception to the claim itself without pretending* to understand fully the justice of each particular item thereof. The late Secretary of War says, in his published statement, that we were entitled to "more than a halt a million of dollars."

NO TIME FOR CALM REFLECTION. When I discovered that the bonds I had When I discovered that the bonds I had borrowed and hypothecated belonged to the Indian Trust Fund, I would have freely given the whole of this large claim, and everything I was worth besides, to have been able at that moment to restore them. Other acceptances of the War Department were then maturing and likely to go to protest. This I knew would so impair the credit of our firm as to render the sale of the bonds certain and their recovery lineredit of our tirm as to render the sale of the bonds certain, and their recovery lm-possible. I had no time to devote to calm reflection. A week orten days might have enabled me to mature some plan by which to recover and restore them, but in the meantime, they were likely to be sold. Then, and ln that event, I knew that the Government avecptances which had been issued to our firm, under circumstances that blaced me moder the highest bossible that placed me under the highest possible obligation to protect them, must inevita-bly go to protest.

RUSSELL GETS DEEPER IN THE MIRE. fu the stress of my difficulties I was in no condition, and, as I have said before, I had no time to weigh the responsibility, land no time to weigh the responsibility, on the or e hand of wrecking our firm, discrediting the War Department, and permitting the hypothecated bonds to be sold beyond my reach, against that on the other hand of accepting more bonds with which to profect those that I had already used, until Congress should authorize the Department to pay us our dues. I determined upon the latter alternative. This decision involved the necessity of using a sufficient apon the latter alternative. This decision involved the necessity of using a sufficient amount of bonds to protect from protest the other maturing acceptances of the War Department; for it was perfectly obvious that a protest would put it wholly and permanently out of my power to return either the first or second lot of bonds. Accordingly, I accepted an additional lot, and used them, surfly to protect those all and used them, partly to protect those al ready hypothecated, but chicaly to raise money upon which to pay off the other ac-ceptances then maturing.

HE IS IN IMMINENT PERIL. It is proper to remark in this connection that in receiving the second lot of bonds I gave in exchange therefor the receipts of our firm in my own hondwriting, to be deposited in the Interior Department as the evidence that I had received them. The money due our firm was very largely in excess of the bonds, and as I left in the Department the evidence that I had received them, there could have been ho intention on my part to defraud the Government, nor is it possible that the tievernment can lose one dollar on account of this transaction. It is proper to remark in this connect Financial embarrassments began to b ill over the country. Stocks of all kinds all over the contry. Stocks of all kitues commenced running down with a rapidity that filled me with the greatest possible slarm. My fear was that the bouns I had hypothecated would go down to a very low figure and be sold at such a sacrifice as would still inrther embarrass me. I saw, lu a word, that I was in imminent peril. My Bear Str -1 am now seventy-nine years old, and for the last tweaty-elpit years have been a constant user of your Vegetable Universal Pills when sick, fally realizing the advantage of enforcher purgation with a medicine, which, while harmless in its nature, removes all impurities. I can sufer; say that the vicorous old age t now enjoy has been caused mainly by the timely use of Brandreth's Pills. I have had in these last twenty eight years several fits of sickness, and occasionally some infirmity of age would press upon me. At these times I have always found your pills a sure remedy, glving me not only invaluable as a purgative, but also as a tonic. I have never during these last twenty-eight years used any other medicine whatever, being convinced, by experience, that none was as good. Brandreth's Pills have also been freely used by my neighbors in every kind of sickness, and have been never known to fail when promptly administered. Yours truly, NATHANEL HYATT, (TME CARPET LINING out down for us by you.

Is the only bling of the kind that we have ever seen that we would care to have put under our earpets. So much are we pleased whith, that we would be very unwilling to have another carpet (old ones) put down without it. The difference between a room where It is used and where it is not, is set striking as to arrest the attention of the most unobservant. It is worth more than it cost in the increased softness and pleasantness it dives the carpet and we think you do not overrate its economic setting that it adds one baff to the carpet seen. If our recommended we have baff to the carpet seen.

If our recommended we have the proposed seen. THARRINGTON'S CARPET LINING DEPO is on west side Fourth street, between Main an Market, [05dtf] HUGH WHLKINS. SHELLED CORN.

She was duly advertised for New Orleans, but the merchants thought it a good joke—their clerks were among the P.'s, and freights were not thipped. The E. II. Fairchild, we are assured by Capt. The New Albany Ledger has frequent fings at Louisville, which we do not believe are at all connetuanced by the mechanics or business men of that enterprialing city. The interests of both are identical, especially in boat building, yet the Ledger last week published the following, which had no foundation whatever in truth, yet it has not deceney enough to correct it:

We understand the Louisville also had a run with the famous J. A. Cotten, and heat ber handsomely and with ease. The latter boat run into the former and demolished one of her wheel-houses, which will detain her some time.

The above is about on a par with other wheel-houses, which will detain her some tine. The above is about on a par with other loose reports that appear in that paper, and we only allude to it to show the suppidity of the reporter, who, in making his reports, garbles items from the Courier so that the casual reader would think that we make the binnders.

The same paper stated that two days and twenty hours was the best time ever made from New Orleans to Memphis, which is as near the lact as the statement that the J. A. Cotten and Lonisville were running a race. One was going down the

the J. A. Cotten.

The receipts by the river during the past mouth, as will be seen by our table annexed, included some 50,000 bashels of grain, 373 casks bacon, 1,645 bales of hemp. 1,143 bales of cotton, 4,754 bags coffee, 2,539 barrels and 237 kegs lard, 5,729 barrels flour, 3,241 barrels whisky, 9,891 kegs nails, 1,716 hade sugar, 2,300 bases ton, 3,890 packages of molasses, 749 hogsheads tobacco, and 1,422 barrels of pork.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, MONDAY EVE., April 1, 1861. Monday Eve., April 1, 1861. The present month opens on rather a stringent money market, though we hear of but little complaint, as the demand for money is very small, and in most cases where good paper is offered, it is not by the banks at moderate rares. Business is very light, which is the principal cause of the falling off in the demand for money. Collections are rather batter, and owing to this fact a more cheerful appearance scenas to prevail among the merchants. Our dry goodstrade is tolerably active, there being several large buyers in the market. The market for exchange remains dull, with but a small demand, which is readily supplied by the banks at '4' premium on New York and par on New Orleans. The buying rates are '4' premium on the East and ng rates are 1/4 preminer on the East and on New Orleans.

The general market remains quiet, with but a small amount of business doin, in the leading articles of trade. Flour lefter, with rather a better demand, but there is yet but a small luquiry for ship ment, the demand leging mostly for the nent, the demand being mostly for the extra grades to supply the home market. We quote at $4.50.686.00 for superfluc to choice family brands. The receipts of wheat continue fair and fully equal to the demand. The market is without change, and we continue to prote at $16681 in for prime red and white, from wagons. Corn is quiet, with but a small demand. We quote at $90,526 for yellow to prime white shelled, sacks included. There is hut a small amount of business doing in oats at $35,036 for prime. Whisky is steady at 138,000.

Groceries are firm, with a better demand.
Provisions were more active to-day, and over 409 bbls mess pork were sold at $17

The demand for bacon on orders continues good, and fair sales were unde to-dry at 7/2c for shoulders, 8/2c for rib sides, 10/2c for clear rib, and 10% for clear rides. Butk meats and lard remain unchanged, with negliging doing.
